

Love has no borders in this charming new romantic comedy Shirin in Love. Nazanin Boniadi is Shirin an absent-minded young Iranian-American woman who still lives with her parents in Beverly Hills. Despite her long engagement to a successful plastic surgeon, Shirin finds herself breaking with tradition when she falls in love with a mysterious young man who lives in a lighthouse in northern California. As secrets unravel and cultures clash, Shirin discovers what it means to be true to herself.
